Modern Psychological Studies

This is the premier issue of Modern Psychological Studies, a journal of undergraduate psychology, seeking to present the best and broadest range of modern psychology. The journal is edited entirely by undergraduate students. All readers are undergraduate psychology students. No faculty are involved in the selection of articles or production of this journal. All articles are authored by undergraduate psychology students. If articles are co-authored, the senior author is an undergraduate psychology student. Modern Psychological Studies is published twice yearly, with a Spring and a Fall issue. Individual copies may be ordered for $3.00; a yearly subscription (two issues) for $5.00. Send checks made out to Modern Psychological Studies to:

Editors
Modern Psychological Studies
Department of Psychology
University of Tennessee at Chattanooga 37403

Ralph W. Hood, Jr.
Professor and Faculty Advisor
NOTES ON SUBMISSION OF PAPERS

Manuscripts should follow the strict APA guidelines as found in the APA Publication Manual (3rd Edition). Three copies of the manuscript should be included with your name, institution, address, and telephone number included on a separate cover page. A sponsoring statement from the faculty advisor should be included.

Send submissions to the editors:

Jonathan C. Durm and Alana Scudiere

Modern Psychological Studies
Department of Psychology
University of Tennessee at Chattanooga
Chattanooga, TN 37403-2598
Modern Psychological Studies

Glucose, Exercise, and Short-term Memory .............................................. 1
Brenda Davidson, Cheryle Sanders, and Gwendolyn K. Murdock

The Effect of Field Dependence and Target
Type on Search Time ................................................................. 11
Joe Buissink

The Interaction of Source and Post-event
Misinformation on the Accuracy of Eyewitness
Testimony ................................................................................. 14
Dirk Dickens, Alice Isigame, David Subacz, Stephanie Sponsel, Matthew Strader, and
Judith Foy

The Effect of Victim Bias on Length of Defendant Sentencing ................................................................. 20
Joanne Economou

A Comparison of Non-Verbal God
Concept in United Methodists ....................................................... 24
Jill Kasserman and Jennifer L. Johnson

Subliminal Perception and the Stroop Effect ...................................... 28
Sandra Harvey, Shannon Keathley,
Delinda Muniz, and Ginger Tidmore

The Role of Hair Color in the Perception of Attractiveness ....................................................................... 34
Pamela R. Hinney

Event Frequency Estimations for Non-
Semantic Items .......................................................................... 37
Max Ingersoll

The Effects of Modality and Stimulus Type on Memory for Frequency ............................................................ 41
Kelly Pritchard

The Priming Effects of Parental Divorce
on Relationship Attitudes ............................................................. 48
Donna Wetzel and Faye D. Plascak-Craig

Gender Stereotyping in the United States and Spain ..................................................................... 53
Suzanne Whitmore